

GRIMMWAY FARMS CARROT RECALL:

7/22/21

Four Seasons Produce, Inc.

On Thursday July 22, the FDA published a recall on select lots of certain Grimmway Farms retail packages of carrots for Salmonella concerns as a result of self-testing. Grimmway initially sent Four Seasons Produce a “Not Involved” letter based on their shipping records.

It was later discovered that Four Seasons Produce was shipped some carrots with the expiration dates mentioned in the recall. Four Seasons Produce will be contacting all impacted customers that were shipped any product from the involved lots on their 7/22 or 7/23 deliveries. Impacted product bags should be removed from shelves and destroyed. Full cases should be returned to Four Seasons Produce for disposal.
