

ORGANIC MARKET NEWS

AUGUST 27 - SEPTEMBER 3, 2021

PROMOTABLE ORGANIC GRAPES FOR SEPT.

It's time to promote Organic Grapes from California as it's the start of some of the best flavor and texture varieties of the season and prices that are reasonable.

Not only will September be a great time for Organic Grape supply and quality, Four Seasons is partnered with Air Chief Organic Grapes to bring a promo and display contest to our independent retailer customers.

Varieties for September:

- OG Green Seedless (Sweet Globe, Ivory, Great Green, & Timpson)
- OG Red Seedless (Scarlett Royal, Timco, & Krissy)
- OG Black Seedless (Unknown Black)
- OG Thomcord

OG APPLES

New crop Washington Organic Gala and Honeycrisp Apples are now in good, steady supply. Headed into September, it will be a good time to expand your bulk and bag displays on these top sellers.

The first Organic Sweetango Apples of the 2021 season are slated to arrive around Labor Day. This variety has been very popular amongst the flavor and texture lovers during September and October.

A couple of unexpected late New Zealand Organic Apple containers arrived here in late August, giving us some more Organic Braeburn, Diva, and New Zealand Queen Apples, just in time to fill a little gap before California and Washington really ramp up.

Heirloom Orchards out of Oregon is gapping between varieties. Organic Pink Pearl Apples were expected but have had a lot of quality and growing challenges this season.

OG BERRIES

Organic Blackberries out of California are still in promotable supply for the beginning of September, and then we expect a pretty steep incline as we move into the middle of the month. Mexican product is expected to get started at the same time so markets should even out by late September.

NOTE: Organic Blueberries are very limited for the beginning of September. Expect strong and rising prices as California is slowing down and supplies are limited from Oregon and Washington. Peru is going to have a false start with a little bit of fruit arriving, and then gap until mid-September.

Organic Raspberries out of California are expected to be on a steady decline each week heading into October, causing steady increases in the market. With Baja not expected to begin until the New Year, we could see some elevated pricing as we move into October.

NOTE: California Organic Strawberries are tightening as supplies are dropping with more stringent QC specs put into place at the field level. Prices have firmed up and berry sizes are smaller.

OG TOMATOES

Organic Beefsteak Tomatoes will be promotable for the beginning of September from Green Field Farms located in Ohio. Quality has been outstanding.

Local Organic Grape, Cherry, and Rainbow Cherry Tomatoes from Lady Moon Farms continue in season for the beginning of September. Quality has been outstanding from the PA farm.

Organic Heirloom Tomatoes will continue to be available from local growers. Lady Moon Farms is in between plantings, so we'll fill in with Hepworth Farms and others. Quality has been excellent.

Local Organic Vine Ripe Tomatoes from King Family Farms, grown in Lancaster County, PA, continue to be available for the beginning of September. Quality has been outstanding.

Organic Cluster Tomatoes remain steady for the beginning of September out of Canada. Overall, low demand has kept prices steady, and quality has been nice.

OG MANGOS

Organic Mangos from Mexico are now coming from the Mochis growing region, which is an area that is considered a "Fruit Fly Free" zone.

This fruit will be non-hot water treated, allowing for some of the juicy best eating mangos of the year. These juicy mangos do not come cheap though. Expect prices to jump several dollars a box over the next few weeks.

There will likely be a gap on Organic Mangos for the end of September until the Ecuador season starts sometime in October.

OG CUCUMBERS

NOTE: Organic Cucumber supplies from Pennsylvania and New York continue to slow down in late August. Lady Moon harvests are expected to be very limited as September begins.

Pricing will remain elevated in late August. Markets are expected to remain tight headed into September.

OG PEPPERS

Organic Color Bell Peppers supplies from Canada continue to remain plentiful and promotable, even as other growing regions are more limited with higher prices.

Local Organic Green and Jalapeño Peppers from Lady Moon's PA farm remain strong in supply. Expect steady volumes and pricing, with promotional opportunities heading into September!

OG SQUASH

Local Organic Zucchini from Lady Moon Farms in PA remains strong in supply volume, and quality has remained top notch throughout the season.

ALERT! Organic Yellow Squash will remain extremely tight heading into September. Local growers planted less and continue to struggle to get good quality yields. Harvests out west are also very scarce right now, leading to very limited supplies and high markets.

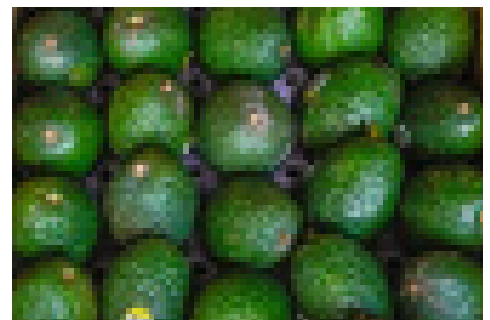

OG ONIONS

Locally grown Organic Sweet Onions should be available for at least another month.

Locally grown Organic Red Onions are starting to wind down from growers in PA. Expect supplies to continue through mid-September, at which time we will transition out to Nevada grown Organic Red Onions.

Both Red and Sweet are great to promote during late August and early September with fantastic quality and good availability.

OG HASS AVOCADOS

ALERT! Organic Hass Avocados remain very tight as the Mexican Flor Loca season yields are virtually all 60s and smaller. Large fruit is basically non-existent, and what little California and Peru had left are mostly all gone. Pricing is expensive!

Mexico's Aventajada crop will not start until middle of September, so the next few weeks will be extremely tricky!

OG CELERY

Organic Celery and Celery Hearts will be in strong supply for the rest of August and early September. With good volume and great pricing, large displays should remain intact to encourage additional sales.

OG SWEET CORN

Organic Bi-Color Sweet Corn yields will continue to be heavy again this week from Pedersen Farms, grown in New York. Quality has been very nice. Continue to promote!

OG CARROTS

• ALERT! Organic Carrots are expected to be limited in supply for most of September, until the fall crops start. Expect occasional out-of-stocks on some of the value-added items. Bags and jumbos will be less abundant than usual.

OG WATERMELONS

Organic Mini Watermelon prices continue to be steady. Quality coming from California has been excellent. Supplies look to remain steady heading into September.

Organic Watermelons continue in season from PA. Quality has been excellent.

OG ASPARAGUS

Organic Asparagus prices did firm up some for the beginning of September. Supplies are slowing down as the transition into new fields begins. Quality has been very nice coming from Mexico.

OG KIWI BERRIES

Coming soon! Organic Kiwi Berries from Oregon will be available around the second week of September!

OG BROCCOLI & CAULIFLOWER

Organic Broccoli from California has slightly improved for late August. Although product is not plentiful, Quebec supplies are available again, creating some extra product and causing the pricing to settle after a gradually rising. Growing conditions will make supplies remain limited and less than ideal quality from California.

Organic Broccoli Crowns remain limited, but much like bunches, the return of Quebec product has helped availability and slowed rising prices.

Organic Cauliflower continue to experience limited harvest yields, causing gaps from some suppliers and limited overall availability. However, Quebec supplies have created some relief.

OG SPECIALTY

Organic Shallots and Okra will be available from California. Four Seasons will partner with Coke Farms on these items.

Organic Red/Magenta Flesh Dragon Fruit has just started some very early harvesting. Really nice product from the East Coast is expected in early September.

Organic Lemongrass will be available from Florida for the beginning of September!

Organic Black Mission Figs continue in season from California!

Organic Pomegranates from California are still a few weeks away. We expect to have them in stock around the middle of September!

OG LETTUCE

NOTE: Organic Romaine and Leaf Lettuce supplies will be tight for the beginning of September from Quebec. Extremely hot temperatures have stalled harvests. Supplementary supplies from both New York and California will be available as well.

Organic Romaine Hearts and Iceberg Lettuce continue from both California and Quebec at promotable pricing. As the month continues, Organic Romaine Hearts will begin to tighten up heading into September as harvests are expected to slow down.

OTHER STORIES

- Organic Lemon supplies are ramping up and prices are starting to come off in a big wave with fruit available from Chile, Mexico, and now California, in both bulk and bags.

- Organic Brussels Sprouts from both California and Mexico are consistent in supplies. Quality, pricing, and supplies are expected to remain unchanged through the remainder of August.

- 6ct and 8ct Organic Pineapples will be steady through September.

- ALERT! Organic Formosa Papaya will gap into at least the first few weeks of September from our partner HLB.

- Organic Green Beans from Elizabethtown, PA continue in season with steady supplies. Expect volumes to drop off in early September due to some harsh weather-related issues. Quality has been excellent.

CONVENTIONAL MARKET NEWS

AUGUST 27 - SEPTEMBER 3, 2021

LATE SEASON PLUMS & PLUOTS

Another round of Pluots are on the way from Family Tree Farms in California for promotion in early September.

Starting 9/1, we'll have 12lb euro single layer packs and 16/1lb clamshells on Gold Rush (Green-Yellow), Plum Cherry (Red), Summer Punch (Red), and King Kong II (Black). Get ready to promote some outstanding specialty stone fruit from Family Tree Farms, known for exceptional texture and flavor!

Unfortunately, the Plapple and Turtle Egg varieties will not be available this year due to challenging growing conditions.

Red and Black Plums continue with late season varieties like Pretty Belle and Simka.

CV GRAPES

Stella Bella Green Grapes from Sunview Marketing have been absolutely beautiful! These grapes are extra-large, sweet, and very crunchy. You've got to try these grapes today - please ask about code 228706.

Cotton Candy Grapes from The Grapery have been excellent so far this season. The quality has been amazing, and the flavor is over the top! Talk about sweet - our latest arrival shows the sugar content (BRIX level) at 23%.

Moon Drop Grapes from The Grapery will be promotable starting at the beginning of September. This is the elongated, sweet, black seedless variety.

Green and Red Grapes are in good supply from California, and the quality has been excellent. We'll be carrying primarily all premium XL fruit, but stay tuned for deals on LG options as we head into September.

CV BERRIES

Blackberries and Raspberries will remain in good supply heading into September. Quality has been nice, but pricing will begin to rise in September as we begin to transition to Mexico.

ALERT! Strawberries will be in much tighter supply from California heading into the first week of September. We are coming to an end of the season in the northern growing areas in Salinas and Watsonville, and volumes are lighter. We're also seeing some challenges from the growing conditions, which is resulting in higher amounts of bruising in the fruit. Sizing is also much smaller, and that limits the ability for larger packs such as the 2lb clamshell.

NOTE: Blueberries will remain in tighter supply as we close out the month of August. We're now getting into beautiful Peruvian imports, but the volumes simply aren't enough to offset the demand. Look for outstanding quality, but much higher pricing in September.

CV APPLES

New crop Eastern Apples are off and running! Look for good supplies and beautiful quality on Gala, Honeycrisp, and Ginger Gold Apples right now. We have all options available from 3 lb poly bags, totes, and trays.

Get ready for a few more Eastern varieties to kick in as we head into September. Red Delicious, McIntosh, Jonagold, Cortland, Empire, Fuji, and Sweetango are all set to begin between 9/1 and 9/13.

New crop Honeycrisp Apples have started for the season on both the east coast and Washington. One note to call out is that there will be quite a spread in pricing (as much as $40.00 a case) between old storage crop (with quality declining) and new crop (fresh) from Washington. To get into the better quality, we'll be transitioning to new crop in the end of August and early September.

NOTE: Granny Smith Apples are in extremely short supply heading into the first week of September. This market will remain tight for at least a couple weeks until new crop begins.

CV CUCUMBERS

Euro Seedless Cucumbers out of Canada remain very promotable for the beginning of September. Quality has been nice.

Mini Seedless Cucumbers also remain promotable for the beginning of September. The flush is starting to clean up, however supplies remain strong.

Super Select Cucumber prices are rising slightly for the beginning of September. The heavy rains in late August have prematurely ended some fields and new plantings are not quite ready to harvest. Quality has been nice.

CV PEPPERS

Green Bell Peppers remain promotable for the beginning of September. Local PA and NJ farms continue to harvest. Quality has been excellent.

11lb Red, Orange, and Yellow Pepper prices did rise some as Canadian harvests slow down. Quality has been very nice on all varieties.

CV HASS AVOCADOS

ALERT! Hass Avocados from Mexico are in very tight supply again for the beginning of September and prices are up. Large fruit is virtually unavailable, and what little fruit California and Peru had left are basically all gone.

Mexico's Aventajada crop will not start until the middle of September, so the next few weeks will be very tight. There will be no 32ct fruit for at least 3 weeks! Please plan to adjust avocado sets to smaller sizing!

CV STONE FRUIT

New Jersey Peaches and Nectarines continue to be promotable, and the quality has been very nice. We will continue to stick with all 2 3/4" size fruit until the season winds down by mid-September.

Cherries are finished for the USA season. Thank you for your support!

CV WATERMELONS

Watermelons are promotable for the beginning of September coming from DE, MD, and NC. PA melons are starting to finish up as the season comes to an end. Quality has been very nice.

CV SWEET CORN

Sweet Corn remains very promotable for the beginning of September. Farms continue produce excellent quality and yields locally. Expect harvests to continue to Mid-September.

CV GREEN BEANS

Green Bean prices are rising somewhat off the floor for the beginning of September. Heavy rains in late August have some hurt some local production, causing markets to react. Quality has been outstanding.

CV ASPARAGUS

Asparagus prices will get tighter for the beginning of September as Mexico and Peru's production is slowing down. Quality has been nice, but pricing will continue to get stronger.

CV LETTUCE

Iceberg, Green Leaf, and Red Leaf Lettuces are readily available. The Iceberg Lettuce from Quebec is trading at a significant value over western product.

CV LOCAL TOMATOES

Grape Tomatoes remain steady for the beginning of September. Local PA-grown production will begin to taper off as peak season is winding down. We should continue to see availability well into September.

Vine Ripe Tomato prices are coming off for the beginning of September. After plenty of rain and weather turning hot, harvests are coming on strong. Quality has been exceptional. Great promotion opportunity for the beginning of September!

Lancaster County, PA Medley Tomatoes are available in 15/1 pints.

CV TOMATOES

Beefsteak Tomatoes will be promotable for the beginning of September. Weak demand with increased production has crashed markets. Quality has been nice coming from Canada.

Cluster Tomato prices eased off for the beginning of September. Harvests are steady but demand remains weak.

Roma Tomatoes remain steady for the beginning of September coming out of Tennessee and Mexico. Quality has been very nice.

Mini Snacking Medley Tomato prices have come way off to promotable levels. Quality has been excellent.

CV BROCCOLI & CAULIFLOWER

LOCAL OUTLOOK: With September around the corner, talk of local Bin Cauliflower and Bin Broccoli has begun. Transplants are in the ground and are looking good from our local PA growers. First harvests are expected by end of September as long as the weather holds out.

Cauliflower availability has been steady out of CA, Quebec, and Maine but there is concern with heat that might slow down harvests.

There are healthy supplies of Broccoli Crowns in all growing regions. Quality continues to be wonderful.

CV NAVELS & MANDARINS

Import Navel Oranges continue to be in good supply, and the quality has been excellent.

We will continue to carry many pack sizes heading into September, including loose 56, 72, and 88sz as well as 9/3 lb bags. Continue to promote these beautiful import Navels.

Ports are backed up and bagging operations are behind due to labor shortages. These two factors are could put some supply chain hiccups in an otherwise good Peruvian Mandarin season.

- Mangos from Mexico are winding down. There is little to no 10-12ct sizing as what is left from Mexico is much larger fruit to finish the season. We are 1-2 weeks away from a nice Brazilian crop, which we will transition right into.

- PA Simply Sweet Onions continue to be in promotable supplies. Peruvian Sweet Onions are also hitting the scene for the beginning of September as the first of the season imports are getting started out of Peru. We will continue to promote the locally grown Sweet Onions while they are available.

CV LEMONS & LIMES

Lemons are in good supply from California. Pricing will remain higher than usual, but the quality is very nice. Sizing will remain most plentiful on the larger side with mostly 95sz and 115sz available.

NOTE: Limes are currently in steady supply but look for this market to become tighter as we head into mid-September. Quality has been very nice on all place pack 42sz, 54sz, and even bulk 150sz fruit.

CV SALADS

ALERT! Fresh Express is experiencing delays in shipping from their Harrisburg, PA facility due to labor shortages. This is causing fill-rate disruptions from Fresh Express when they can't get their trucks out.

Dole's logistics for their Salad production have been much stronger, but they are having some occasional pro-rates due to their own production capacity challenges.

OTHER STORIES

- Red, Yellow, and White Onions continue to be in improved supply for the beginning of September as Washington continues to produce better supplies.

- Black Mission Figs from California remain promotable as we head into September. Look to take advantage of some peak freshness and flavor! We will have some Tiger Stripe/Panache Figs available in limited supply for early September as well in a 12/8oz pack.

- Dragon Fruit from Florida slowed down very rapidly out of Florida and supplies are now limited.

- Brussels Sprouts availability continues to slightly improve. Better volume is expected after Labor Day.

- Artichoke availability is limited headed into September. Expect big price jumps.

- Local Green Squash remains steady for the beginning of September. Quality has been very nice.

- NOTE: Yellow Squash prices continue to be strong this season. Overall acreage was cut as farmers just planted less or didn't plant any at all, keeping markets strong.
